ESCAPES TRIAL ON TECHNICALITY

Elmer Littrell is Discharged When it is Found Affidavit Against Him is Faulty

ACCUSED OF SELLING BOOZE

Develops That he Bought Whiskey at Court House Drug Store With Money Pea Gave Him

Elmer Littrell escaped trial this morning on a charge of selling intoxicating liquor because of a faulty affidavit. The case was dismissed although Mayor Bebout took the position that some offense had been committed.

Littrell was specifically charged with selling a quart of whiskey to Lige Pea. Littrell bought the whiskey at the Court House drug store and in turn gave it to Pea. Under the law this does not constitute a sale on the part of Littrell, although he evidently made false affidavit in securing the liquor for Pea.

Mayor Bebout made an honest effort to land Littrell. Lige Pea has given the police much trouble and last Saturday night the climax was reached when he was reported to the police. Pea was brought before the mayor and told that he had been getting his whiskey through Elmer Littrell and his father, J. Littrell.

Mayor Bebout decided to see if Lige was telling the truth and gave him one dollar with which to buy a quart of whiskey. The entire thing was pre-arranged and just as Littrell was about to hand the bottle over to Pea he was arrested. Monday when arraigned an affidavit charging him with a specific sale was filed and the trial was set for this morning. In the meantime it was found that the affidavit was wrong and that there was no case against Littrell for this offense.

Under the law a man can buy a quart of whiskey at a drug store if he makes affidavit as to its intended use. Mayor Bebout took the position that Littrell made a false affidavit at the Court House drug store when he bought it for Pea.

"I have had numerous complaints against you and your father," said Mayor Bebout in addressing Littrell, "and it has come to a point where it must stop. It was my money that bought that quart of whiskey because I am trying my best to keep this city 'dry.' I am telling you this with the hope that you will quit it. It seems like a funny law that will permit a man to buy whiskey at a drug store by simply making affidavit and then permitting the buyer to do what he pleases with it. I have had numerous complaints against you and your father and I hope this will prove a lesson."

TWENTY DIE IN STORM

(By United Press.)

Jacksonville, Florida, July 7.—Twenty dead and several million dollars property damage was today's estimate here of the toll of the storm which ravaged the coast of Alabama, Louisiana and Florida for two days. Most of the dead are negroes.

ELECTROCUTED FOR MURDER

(By United Press.)

Trenton, N. J., July 7.—Emil Swentamin, 30, convicted of clubbing John Boston of Farmingdale, an aged recluse, to death, died in the electric chair here today. Swentamin beat Boston to death two weeks after being acquitted of the murder of Jane Acker, another aged recluse near Farmingdale.

TODAY CONCEDED HOTTEST

More Complaints Because of Heat
Than Any Time This Summer

Today was generally conceded to have been the warmest day of the summer thus far. This afternoon at two o'clock the temperature was 88 degrees in the shade, while directly across the street with the sun beating down on the pavement the mercury reached the 100 mark. These figures apply to the business district where the heat was intense all day. There may have been warmer days this summer but more complaints were heard because of the heat today than any other day and many were of the opinion that this was the warmest of the season.

PAVING IN FIRST TO START SOON

When Contractor A. L. Tribble
Blames Commissioners for Delay
They Order Brick at Once

SHIPMENTS STARTED TODAY

The work of paving First street is expected to start soon as a result of a conference yesterday between the commissioners and the contractor, A. L. Tribble, of Terre Haute. Tribble was told that the county expected the street to be finished under the specified time. Tribble in turn blamed the commissioners for the delay because he could not start work until the brick was ordered.

The commissioners were led to believe by Tribble that strikes at the various brick plants would make it impossible to secure the brick. The commissioners decided to call his bluff and picked out the Medora brick for the job. The Medora brick is made at Medora, Ind., and communication with the plant revealed the information that they could begin shipping today and that brick should begin arriving here within three or four days. Tribble was then told to get busy.

WANTS DIVORCE AFTER 27 YEARS

Mrs. Jennie M. Ryon Files Suit Today, Alleging She Was Subjected to Abuses

JAMES M. RYON IS DEFENDANT

After living together twenty-seven years, Mrs. Jennie A. Ryon has decided she can endure it no longer and has filed suit for divorce from James M. Ryon. They are residents of Richland township. According to the complaint which was filed today by Samuel L. Trabue, they were married in Franklin county March 21, 1889 and separated June 14, 1916.

She charges him with cruel and inhuman treatment, alleging that he frequently cursed her in the presence of their only child and that she was subjected to other abuses. Mrs. Ryon maintains that they are the holders in common to the title of 85 acres of land and she asks for her undivided one-half. She also asks the custody of their child, and $5 a week support money pending the outcome of the case. A temporary restraining order was issued preventing him from disposing of any of the property.

ARE OPPOSED TO HORSE SHOW

Many Who Have Backed Fall Event
Financially in Past Say They Will Not This Year

FAVOR SOMETHING, HOWEVER

Believe Money Spent in Premiums
Could be Used to Better Advantage for Entertainment

The opinion has been expressed by several business men that the annual horse show in Rushville has run its course and that it will be replaced by something else this fall. Many of those who have backed the show financially have said that they would not support it this fall.

Those who are opposed to another horse show, however, are in favor of some sort of a fall event, and it has been suggested that this year it would be suitable to augment the observance of the centennial at the chautauqua with a celebration of some sort about the same time the horse show is usually held.

The suggestion has been made that a three-day event might be held this fall in the form of a fall festival, home coming and centennial celebration. By doing away with the industrial parade which has been a feature of the horse show for two years past, the idea is advanced that an immense pageant or parade might be held, with the centennial the main idea expressed in it.

Several men have been talking about such a celebration and have met with considerable response from those who have been paying the bills for the horse show every year but are unalterably opposed this year to a horse show. They declare that the horse show does not arouse the enthusiasm that it once did and that not near so many persons are animated by the desire to see sleek-haired animals as there were when the horse show was instituted here many years ago.

The gradual encroachment of paved streets has driven the light harness horse farther and farther from the city until, for the last two or three years, the showings in that class have had to be held at the edge of the business district. It would be impossible for the light harness horses to be shown in West First street this year because that street will be torn up for paving. Just where the events could take place is not known.

It is advocated by those who have been putting up the cash every year for the horse show that the same sum of money which is used for premiums and other expenses of the show could be used to much better advantage in entertaining the people.

FRATS IN POLITICS

New York, July 7.—Greek letter fraternities, say college boys, are playing strong in college politics. Perhaps they have jimmied their way into the national game.

Charles Evans Hughes, the G. O. P. presidential candidate belongs to the Delta Upsilon crowd.

Frank Hitchcock, the man who "did it," also wears the Delta U. emblem.

Major Crossett, major domo at Hughes headquarters, is a national officer of the Greek letter organization which Hughes is a member of.

It may be that the whole thing was plotted at some mystic hour in the chapter "tomb."

K. of P. NOTICE

The Installation of officers will take place Monday night.

HELEN WARRUM WILL SING HERE

Noted Hoosier Soloist Will Appear
Twice on Centennial Day at Chautauqua

CONSENT RECEIVED TODAY

With Her, Riley, Governor Ralston
and Historical Picture, Day
Will be Fitting One

The program committee of the Rush county chautauqua, which will be held August 6 to 13, at the coliseum in the city park, announced today that the program had been completed with the consent of Helen Warrum, formerly of Indianapolis, to sing on Centennial day—Thursday, August 10.

It is felt that an exceptionally fine program has been obtained for the special celebration of the state's hundredth birthday with the seven-reel picture depicting Indiana's history, a visit from James Whitcomb Riley music by a former Hoosier girl who has attained success in grand opera, and a possible visit from Governor Ralston.

Indiana day at the chautauqua this year will undoubtedly be a feature of this year's chautauqua for a number of reasons, but especially because the committee has the promise of the Hoosier poet to pay Rushville a visit. Of course, Riley's coming can not be absolutely assured, but if his health is all right and the weather is not too disagreeable, he will most surely be present in Rushville on Indiana day.

Not only because it will be Indiana day, will the visit of Riley be appropriate, but much more so will it be because Riley is pictured in the photoplay, "Indiana," which is to be shown that day, as telling the story which the picture tells to a group of little children, his best friends. Frequently during the picture Riley and his little friends are depicted to keep up the thread of the story.

The program committee was elated when it received word this morning that Helen Warrum could be here on Thursday, August 10. She will give preludes of forty-five minutes for both the afternoon and evening programs. Miss Warrum is a talented soloist with whom Hoosier musicians and lovers of music are very familiar. She has appeared in Indianapolis often since she became noted as a grand opera singer. Miss Warrum does special costume numbers and thus offers a program of great variety.

The program committee has a tentative promise from Governor Ralston to visit the chautauqua Indiana day, which would round out the special program and make it all that could be desired. When Governor Ralston was invited, he could give no assurance that the duties of his office would be such as to allow his attendance here. The committee, however, has high hopes that the governor as well as James Whitcomb Riley will be able to attend.

When plans formulated for centennial memorials are carried out, it is believed that the celebration here will be very fitting. Committees have been appointed to arrange for the erection of a memorial gate at the entrance of the city park and a log cabin representative of those of pioneer days in Indiana.

RESUME GREAT OFFENSIVE

British Troops Deliver Simultaneous Smashes Against German Lines

(By United Press.)

London, July 7.—British troops resumed their great offensive against the Germans at dawn today with simultaneous smashes against the German line on a wide front.

An official statement from General Haig, given out at 2:45 this afternoon, announced a striking British success east of Las Boisselle, where one thousand yards of German trenches were taken, and the capture of several important positions taken.

ENGAGES JUDGE FOR THE FINE ARTS

Secretary Thomas of Fair Association Engages Mrs. W. L. Berryman for Coming Exhibit

HAS NATIONAL REPUTATION

Mrs. W. L. Berryman, who is a judge of national reputation, has been engaged by the Rush County Fair association to judge culinary, needlecraft and art at the approaching exhibition. Because of the large amount and fine variety of the showing in the fine arts department last year, it was expected that the display would be even greater this year and the fair officials are especially anxious to get a judge of this character to decide who shall have the premiums.

Mrs. Berryman represented Indiana in the women's department at the St. Louis exposition and was the judge of needlecraft at the Panama-Pacific exposition. Mrs. Berryman has judged at the Indiana state fair for many years and for the state fairs of numerous other states.

"A person receiving an award at her hands has something to be prized," said Secretary Thomas of the fair association today.

THIRD INFANTRY TO BE ON WAY SOON

Same Dispatch is not Shown Today as Was Displayed Yesterday
When Battalion Left

DESTINATION THOUGHT SAME

(By United Press.)

Fort Benjamin Harrison, Indianapolis, Ind., July 7.—With the artillery battalion of the Indiana National Guard on its way to "somewhere on the Mexican border," three more troop trains were being made up at Camp Ralston today and by night the Third infantry regiment was expected to be on its way.

It was believed at camp today that the destination of the Third infantry is the same as that of the battalion, Brownsville, Texas. The regiment consists of 54 officers and 1,071 men.

Entrainment of the Third infantry did not proceed with the dispatch shown yesterday in the entrainment of the battalion and guard officers said this afternoon the troops would not be ready to leave before tonight.

It was stated unofficially this afternoon that entrainment of the Second infantry, scheduled for Monday, might be delayed, awaiting the mustering of the Kokomo and Princeton companies. Red tape in Washington is holding up the mustering in of the companies.

IS PREPARED TO EXCHANGE VIEWS

United States Comments on Frank Statement of Difficulties in Carranza Note of July 4

REPLY IS FORWARDED TODAY

Expresses Satisfaction at "Desire of Your Government to Reach an Adjustment."

(By United Press.)

Washington, July 7.—Declaring "the government of the United States is prepared immediately to exchange views as to a practical plan to remove finally and prevent a recurrence of the difficulties which has been the cause of controversy," Secretary of State Lansing dispatched to Mexican Ambassador Arredondo a reply to General Carranza's note of July 4.

The American government comments favorably in the note on the "frank statement of the difficulties which have arisen," and expresses gratification over the "unreserved expression of the desire of your government to reach an adjustment." Arredondo will immediately telegraph the note to the Mexican foreign office and it is expected that he will be at once instructed to begin the desired negotiations with the state department.

Acting Secretary of State Polk will conduct the negotiations for the department in the absence of Secretary Lansing who leaves on his vacation this afternoon.

FEAR ATTACK FROM BIG CARRANZA FORCE

(By United Press.)

Eagle Pass, Texas, July 7.—Scores of American residents in Piedras Negras opposite here, left the Mexican city today, fearing attack by the large force of Carranzistas which has been concentrated there. The Mexican troops are unruly and with them are large forces of Yaqui Indians, encamped on the outskirts of the city. Today Generals Murquia and Cos arrived with a force of 500 to 2,000 soldiers. More Carranza troops are said to be enroute here.

VILLA LOOMS AGAIN ON THE MEXICAN HORIZON

(By United Press.)

El Paso, Texas, July 7.—Villa again looms up in the Mexican situation, threatening Carranza's rule in northern Mexico. Unconfirmed reports to United States officials here declared the bandit leader himself is at the head of over 2,000 men, in possession of Jimenez and menacing Torreon, and other cities now held by small Carranza garrisons.

PERSHING MAY ADVANCE TO MEET THE VILLISTAS

(By United Press.)

Washington, July 7.—General Pershing's punitive column will not only remain within Mexico "for the time being," but it may even be sent farther south to take a whack at the Villa band reported to have annihilated practically a Carranza garrison near Jimenez. This was learned on high authority today following a formal notification of the Villista success.

NATIVES SAY VILLA IS RECRUITING MEN

(By United Press.)

Columbus, N. M., July 7.—Declaring that Villa is alive and desires a great army to fall upon the gringos and drive them from Mexico, Villista agents are recruiting in villages south of the American expedition's advanced base.

The agitators and recruiting agents have also been working

MAKING SURVEY OF CLAY COUNTY

Department of Geology of Indiana University Finding Out Natural Resources.

SCHOOL MAINTAINS CAMP

(By United Press.)

Brazil, July 7.—What are the natural resources of Clay county. By the end of the summer this question will be answered by the body of geologists now working over the country. The work is being done under the direction of the Department of geology of Indiana University. The class is headed by Prof. J. W. Beede, associate professor in geology at the state university.

The field training camp is now near Bowling Green. The work is confined to what is known to the federal department of geology as the Clay City triangle, the northern limits of which almost reach this city.

The school maintains a camp of its own for the reason that the members have more privacy and better facilities for studying. Each member of the school goes out during the day and makes his investigation and in the evening they compare their notes and discuss the formations they have noted.

STARS GO TO PHILADELPHIA

(By United Press.)

Chicago, July 7.—The 1917 Western Amateur golf championship probably will go to the far west. Golfers of the middle western states, including the present title holder Chick Evans, cannot make the trip to the Del Monte, Cal., course the championship play will take place, because of the great distance and the amount of time needed.

Evans announced some time previous to the qualifying rounds, scheduled for July 17, that he could not defend his title because of the action of the association in choosing the far western golf course as the battle ground.

Only two men of championship calibre in the Chicago district, which has produced champions for the last seventeen years, are among the scheduled contestants. They are Ned Sawyer, Whetstone and E. Hoover Rankard, Midlothian.

As a result of the disadvantages in the Western Golf association championship contest, most of the Chicago stars will journey to Philadelphia in August to play for the national amateur championship.

Be Careful in Using Soap on Your Hair

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is just plain mul-sified coconut oil, for it is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap, and beats the most expensive soaps or anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful of all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy, and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.

Harvey, Prognosticator.

Col. George Harvey, once staunch friend of President Wilson, who did more than any one person to accomplish the nomination and election of Wilson teaches a lesson in preparedness by recalling a prophecy that he made when United States soldiers were ordered into Mexico. He wrote in the New York Sun as follows to show that what he prophesied came true, the first one having been written under date of March 17:

"Has Washington gone crazy? Can it be possible, as reported here, that the president has sent a paltry force of only 5,000 ill equipped and unsupported soldiers on a wild, bandit chase into a hornet's nest of gringo haters, ten times their number and ten times as well equipped with machine guns and ammunition, without safeguarding a line of communication in case of need of retreat? Not so long ago we were bidden to trust the amiable Villa, who at Juarez sat at the feet of our chief of staff, acting as personal representative of the commander-in-chief, and obediently studied the usages of civilized warfare, only later at Columbus to return with marked effect a few of the

A RUSHVILLE INTERVIEW

Mr. Priest Tells His Experience

The following brief account of an interview with a Rushville man over five years ago, and its sequel, will be read with keen interest by every citizen.

Geo. Priest, 223 W. 3rd St., Rushville, says: "I have been afflicted more or less with kidney trouble for several years. It came on me gradually and each day, I could notice that it was becoming worse. I started with a dull pain directly over my kidneys, dizzy spells followed and there seemed to be specks before my eyes. Doan's Kidney Pills were highly recommended for such ailments and I got a box at Johnson's Drug Store. They proved to be the best medicine of the kind I had ever used. In a short time they freed me from that distressing pain in my back and restored my kidneys to a normal condition.

The above statement was given on March 9, 1910, and on Aug. 26, 1915, Mr. Priest said: "Whenever my kidneys bother me, I use Doan's Kidney Pills and they always give good results. My former endorsement still holds good."

millions of bullets which we had supplied to him, as our ally in the president's war on Huerta. Now we are told to place faith in the no less gentle Carranza, who has held nominal authority by flouting, deriding and defying our government at every turn, and who can not reverse his policy without inviting deposition or assassination. We do not have to heed this executive adjuration any more than we have to be neutral in our thoughts; but our soldiers do. Carranza and his army may spare their lives or they may be cut off and surrounded. They soon will be at the mercy perhaps of the relentless first chief, but none the less subject to the passions of his horde of hostile and savage men. This mad adventure is nothing less than a bid for the massacre of American soldiers. Can nothing be done to stop it?"

Colonel Harvey points to his letter of March 17 as a prophecy and now comments on it in the same newspaper the New York Sun, as follows: "Apparently nothing could be done; in any case nothing was done; hence the ambush and massacre of American soldiers at Carrizal. But that may not be all; indeed, there is a strong probability that it is only the beginning. General Pershing's purpose in sending out a troop is evident. It was not a foolhardy act; it was necessary. He was obliged to find out whether his line of communication was intact; whether his command was being cut off and surrounded. And having no scouting aeroplanes there was but one thing to do, namely, to acquire requisite information, conformably to military tenets, for the safeguarding of an entire command, even though a troop be sacrificed in the process.

"And now what? The actual situation is unchanged. Our soldiers are still confronted or surrounded by ten times their number and ten times as well supplied with machine guns and ammunition, and the demonstrated unpreparedness of both the war department and national guard indicates conclusively that no adequate support can be furnished for weeks to come. The gringo haters are elated by the success of their treacherous assault, fully equipped and supremely confident.

"The Pershing command is in imminent peril. There is but one thing to do in simple justice to our soldiers and regardless of their wishes.

"Hasten the mobilization of the militia on the border by all means, but above all, immediately, without wasting a day, an hour or a minute, before it may prove too late:

"Withdraw our troops from Mexico!"

It begins to look like the punitive expedition into Mexico would be another Vera Cruz, as was predicted it might be when United Soldiers were ordered across the border to get Villa dead or alive.

Several days ago orders were issued by the Mexican commander of the north for General Pershing's command not to move anyway except north, which was towards the border. Since that time United States troops have moved only north. No doubt this has caused as much secret elation to Carranza and his followers as did the refusal of Huerta to salute the flag, when he was ordered to do so at Washington, cause joy among those of the men heigning power in Mexico.

Although, Washington information indicates, withdrawal is not in the immediate future, it is likely because of the pacificatory note which Carranza sent to the president—withdrawal without the accomplishment of the avowed purpose for which United States soldiers were sent into Mexico.

Current Comments

Our German Citizens.

(Shelbyville Republican)

By directness and by insinuation the Democratic platform adopted at the St. Louis convention is an insult to every German citizen of this country. The average citizen of this country has been taught that the constitution grants to him freedom of speech, freedom of thought, freedom of religious worship and a freedom to vote as he pleases; that coercion is a crime.

Because of the spineless attitude assumed by the government in our foreign relations, President Wilson has lost the support of thousands of Germans in this country. The facts are that because of the blockade of German ports by the English navy and its supporters the German government has been hampered in securing supplies from this country while the allies have in a large measure, been maintained by the various supplies purchased here. The Germans say that the English government, in particular, has been much favored by the Wilson administration; that if the same restrictions had been carried into execution against the allies that the Germans have been compelled to recognize the war would have been over.

The Germans of this country are naturally in sympathy with Germany the same as the English are in sympathy with England and the Turks in sympathy with Turkey. A German of this country, who is a G. A. R. member recently said to The Republican he was in sympathy with Germany in this war; that he hoped that Germany would win and added that his wish has nothing to do with his citizenship. An Englishman living in this city is in full accord with England hoping that the allies will be victorious in the conflict raging. He has in the English army seven nephews. As a matter of fact his sympathies are with England. This condition has nothing to do with his Americanism. Both of the men mentioned are as good Americans as the flag floats over—both would die for the flag if necessity demanded.

President Wilson is in the position where he must bear the blame and the brunt of all the errors of his administration. If his course has offended the German citizens of this country he will have to face that problem.

Automobile Thief is One of the Cleverest Crooks

Sorts of Devices and Schemes
Are Used by This Class of Robber to Get Away.

NO SURE PROTECTION FOUND

One of the cleverest crooks the twentieth century has developed is the automobile thief, according to police officers who have studied their methods in various large cities. The thief knows every make of car and there is scarcely any precaution taken by the owner of the car to safeguard his property that the thief can not beat.

Some car owners fondly imagine that when they chain the wheel of their car with a fairly thick steel pin, they have made it impossible for any crook to move the auto from its anchorage. The simplicity of this method must cause hilarity among the motor car crooks, for the ordinary steel chain can be cut in a second with the appliances that the thieves carry in their outfit.

But most car owners consider they have made the car immovable merely locking the switch box. It is of interest to know that the thieves have found a way to beat this practice very easily. The clever mechanic who makes a business of stealing cars can cross wires so as to cause ignition and move the engine without bothering with the switch box at all. A method that is kindergarten to the car thief is to connect wires from the dry cell battery direct to the ignition coil, thus starting the motor with difficulty.

Some cars have arrangement by which gasoline supply can be locked, and this is regarded by some owners as placing a hopeless barrier in the way of the thief who would run off with the standing car. For how can a car be moved when the gasoline is shut off. Nothing easier. The motor car thief carries with him his own supply of gasoline in a bucket.

With this gallon or so of gasoline, carried in a bucket, the automobile thief can negotiate a fifteen-mile run with the car by connecting his bucket of gasoline direct to the carburetor. Feeding the gasoline to the carburetor in this way through a rubber hose, the automobile thief can send the car far from the scene of its former station; sufficiently far to enable him to put the gasoline tank and the car in regular commission and speed where he will to safety and a sale.

But the commonest and, therefore, the safest trick of the automobile thief requires no expert mechanical knowledge. It simply requires nerve, which these thieves possess to an unusual degree. This trick is the old one of driving up in an old auto that looks like a garage repair wagon, hitching a rope to the car that is to be stolen and towing it away. The thieves dress for the part in oil-soaked overalls. When they have selected the car to be stolen, picking one that is in a side street and not likely to be under the eye of policeman who may have been tipped to watch the car, the thieves come up to the scene in their old car, looking like the ordinary crew sent for from the garage to repair a car that is in trouble or isn't working as well as its fastidious owner would wish.

They alight from their own car and make a great pretense of examining the car that they intend to spirit away. They remove the hood and scrutinize the motor. They get out a kit of tools and tinker for awhile with some part of the machinery. If any one should happen to be watching them or looking on from a neighboring window all the men do has the appearance of natural work by honest workmen from the repair shop. Presently the men hold a consultation, pointing to some part of the motor machinery, and apparently come to the conclusion that the car can not be started with the tools at their command. Then they hitch a rope to the car and tow it away at the end of their own car. Could anything be more simple?

How can you beat such a game as this? Carrying away part of the machinery does not prevent the thieves from towing the car away. One sure way to prevent robbery is to have the car watched. The policeman on that patrol will keep an eye on it if you are going to make a visit to some office building and coming back in a short time. But if you keep your car in the street the entire day no one can watch it. You are simply taking a chance with the car thieves.

One simple safeguard is a chain on the wheel, and that has proven a flimsy protection for the auto thieves laugh at the ordinary chain, the long-handled nippers that they carry cutting through steel as easily as paper.

The smashing of the padlock is even a simpler way of releasing the wheel. The only comfort the owner of the car can carry away with him after locking the wheel of the car is that he has placed a difficulty in the way of the car thieves, for cutting a chain or breaking a padlock is an action that is likely to attract attention even in a street where every one is intent upon his own business and averse to going out of his way to prevent a possible theft. Besides which, the car thieves can cover the action of opening a padlock of cutting a chain by gathering around the wheel as though they own the car and are merely making an examination or removing the chain preparatory to starting the car.

There are other ways of making the path of the motor car crook as steep and difficult as possible. One motorist believes he has solved the thief problem by having a slot cut in the clutch pedal shaft. Through this he passes a bar which he locks. So far his car has not been stolen. Another way is to remove the rotor. This makes it very difficult for any thief to steal the car, for he would have to carry a number of rotors to be sure of having one that would fit that particular motor.

ARTILLERY IS OFF FOR BORDER

Nearly 500 Soldiers, Comprising
First Battalion, Leave Thursday Night at 7:30

THRILLED BY MARTIAL MUSIC

Many Affecting Scenes are Enacted
as First of Indiana Men Depart for Service

Indianapolis, Ind., July 7.—With a band playing, "The Girl I Left Behind Me," with inspiring cheers from their comrades who are to join them later, blended with the tears of mothers, sisters and sweethearts and with a "God Bless You," from Governor Ralston nearly 500 Indiana soldiers, comprising the First Field Artillery Battalion, departed from Camp Ralston, Fort Benjamin Harrison, at 7:30 o'clock last evening for the Mexican border.

The Third Infantry, Col. Aubrey L. Kuhlman commanding, will en-train today, departing soon after noon, and other units of the Indiana Guard are to follow from day to day until all of the 4,300 men and officers are on their way to the border. It is expected that the Indiana brigade as a whole, will go into camp near Brownsville, Tex., though no official information on the place of destination is forthcoming. It is expected that the last unit, the First Regiment, will have been entrained by next Monday.

The departure of the first Indiana troops was attended by many affecting scenes. Mothers clung to the necks of their boys and kissed them frantically. Sweethearts stood sadly arm in arm with the soldier boy whose bride they expect to be if he returns safely and fighting to keep back tears, said brave good-bys.

Fathers, with serious faces, patted their sons on the back and said farewell. The departing soldiers undoubtedly were deeply affected by the demonstration made, but they would rather have sacrificed their lives than allowed a tear to come. The soldiers, made serious by last-minute thoughts of leaving loved ones, boarded the trains quietly, while outside several hundred soldiers who are to join them in Texas later, cheered lustily.

While the trains stood for a few minutes after the men had gone aboard, several of the more daring girls climbed or were assisted to the open windows and kissed their soldier-lovers a last goodbye. Mothers, choked with emotion until they could scarcely speak, stood below the windows and held to the outstretched hand of their sons.

"Well, Jim, you are the man of the house now. Take good care of mother," said one soldier to his younger brother, who, with the sobbing mother, stood beside one of the Battery A. coaches.

"I would go myself if I were a man, but I don't want by boy—my only son—to go," cried one mother while the young soldier stood with his arm about her and attempted to console her.

She felt that her son was doing his duty to his country in answering a call to arms from the President, yet she was overcome with the thought of their separation and the possibility that he may never return.

"Be a good boy and obey your commanding officer," admonished a father who was one of the few parents to withhold his tears.

Several pretty girls in the crowd gathered about the cars in the Belt Railroad yards at Fort Harrison were seen to pass slips of paper, bearing their names and addresses, to soldiers with the suggestion and even the promise that they would receive souvenir postals or possibly a letter. The soldiers to receive these attentions were those who had no parents or friends to bid them a last farewell.

WOMAN HAD NERVOUS TROUBLE

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helped Her.

West Danby, N. Y.—"I have had nervous trouble all my life until I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for nerves and for female troubles and it straightened me out in good shape. I work nearly all the time, as we live on a farm and I have four girls. I do all my sewing and other work with their help, so it shows that I stand it real well. I took the Compound when my ten year old daughter came and it helped me a lot. I have also had my oldest girl take it and it did her lots of good. I keep it in the house all the time and recommend it."—Mrs. DEWITT SINCEBAUGH, West Danby, N. Y.

Sleeplessness, nervousness, irritability, backache, headaches, dragging sensations, all point to female derangements which may be overcome by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

This famous remedy, the medicinal ingredients of which are derived from native roots and herbs, has for forty years proved to be a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism. Women everywhere bear willing testimony to the wonderful virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. With the new swimming pier built and a supervised bathing beach along Flatrock near the old gun club grounds, swimming parties are quite in vogue. Yesterday afternoon, between the hours of three and five about twenty-five young people had a gay time swimming.

FAMILY REUNION

Mrs. Daniel Kerr was hostess to a number of relatives at a family reunion, Tuesday. Her guests were Mrs. M. M. Coyne and children Ivan and Marcella of Rushville; Mrs. C. E. Buckley and daughter of Harrison, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. O. I. Harrison and daughter Ulla of Hagerstown; and Miss Marie Talbert of Morristown—Connersville Examiner.

EMANON CLUB

One of the most pleasant meetings of the season for the members of the Emanon Club was the one held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Bert Mullin in North Perkins street. The twelve members were present, enjoying a congenial afternoon together. Late in the afternoon, they were invited into the dining room where the prettily set table was decorated with nasturtiums and an elegant salad course was served. The next club meeting will be held with Mrs. Carl Beher.

GRAND CLUB

Mrs. J. C. Sexton was hostess to the members of the Grand Club at her home in North Main street yesterday afternoon. Aside from the twelve members there were a few guests, making four tables in play. After the interesting card games, a refreshing luncheon was served by the hostess. Among the players were Mrs. Sallie Houston of Shelbyville, who is the house-guest of Mrs. George Aultman, Mrs. Hunt, and Mrs. Hadley of Anderson, the house guests of Mrs. Theodore Reed.

CLASS PICNIC

The classes of the St. Paul's M. E. Sunday school picnicked yesterday afternoon in the Frames woods east of the city. They went shortly after noon and spent the hours preceding supper wading and playing various outdoor games. Near evening, a bonfire was built and the weenies roasted furnished a part of the bountiful picnic supper which was spread. The two classes are taught by Miss Louise Poe and Miss Helen Seudder, with Miss Gladys Bebout as assistant teacher for the latter. The picnickers included Jean Sparks, Letha Higgins, Magdaline Arbuckle, Helen Thomas, Lillian Priest, Roberta Muire, Mildred Mary, Lois Sefton, Fern Ormes, and Louise Lyons.

CAMPING PARTY

The girls camping at the Green cottage on the Flatrock are enjoying a delightful outing during their week's stay. Swimming, boating and the other sports which the season offers are being overworked by the girls in their care-free, outdoor life.

The duties, which are few, have been divided, giving each of the girls an opportunity to show their culinary art. Two are in charge of the meals for each day and rivalry has already been shown in their efforts to prepare the best menus with the allotted amount of finances. Tuesday, the girls had a pitch-in dinner; Wednesday, Miss Lois Reeves and Kathryn Guffin had charge; Thursday Miss Esther Anderson and Miss Kathryn Wooden were the chefs; and today's meals were prepared by Miss Dorothy Sparks and Miss Dorothy Mulno; and so on in rotation. Last evening Mr. and Mrs. Lucien B. Miller took the girls on a motor trip. Today, they entertained Mrs. Ferd Retherford, Mrs. Will Mulno, and Mrs. Link Guffin and daughter, Margaret, at dinner.

A social time with refreshments will follow the regular meeting of the Eastern Star to be held in the Masonic Temple this evening. The degree will be conferred and there will be regular work.

OPEN MEETING.

About fifty invitations were issued for the open meeting of the C. W. B. M. of Orange to be held at the home of Mrs. J. F. Ryan there this afternoon. All the ladies of the church and the girls belonging to the Mission Circle were among the guests. An excellent program was given.

CHICKEN SUPPER

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Eakin entertained with a fried chicken supper at their home northeast of the city last evening. Nasturtiums decorated the center of the table about which the following guests were seated: Mr. and Mrs. Enos Hood and daughter, Edna, of Indianapolis, Mr. and Mrs. Cicero Newhouse, and Mrs. Corina Newhouse and daughters, Opal, Marie and Edith.

Mr. and Mrs. Hood spent last evening with Mr. and Mrs. Eakin and after being the guests today of Mr. and Mrs. Berry Rush at their home near Falmouth, will return to their home in Indianapolis tomorrow.

LITTLE FLATROCK C. W. B. M.

The patriotic colors and a profusion of flags were used in decorating the Little Flatrock church yesterday afternoon for the meeting of the C. W. B. M. held there. Aside from the forty-one members present, there were nine visitors, making an excellent attendance to appreciate the good program given. The program was under the leadership of Mrs. Herbert Holden and the numbers were:

Song—Mrs. Charles Fisher.
Scripture reading—John X, 1-18—Mrs. Mollie Coon.
Recitation—Miriam Holman.
Bible study—Home in Bethany—Mrs. Burl Matney.
Paper—Mrs. Walter Looney.
Sentence prayers—led by Mrs. O. J. Myers.
Piano duet—Mildred Wilson and Vera Mercer.
Reading—Mrs. Mont Stewart.
Talk on "Mexico, our work there and our relation as a Neighbor"—Mrs. J. A. Austin of the Ben Davis society.
Mrs. John Cassidy, superintendent of the Children's work was assisted by Mrs. Cliff Stevens, in giving a very interesting program in the Sunday School room. A business period and social hour followed. During the latter, Miss Mildred Myers sang a solo, "Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean" and the ladies enjoyed a delicious luncheon. For this meeting, the hostesses were Mrs. O. J. Myers, Miss Margaret and Miss Eliza Holman, Mrs. El Jenkins, Mrs. Claude Kenner, Mrs. Emma Wilkinson, and Mrs. Arthur Wilkinson.

Judge Blair Criticizes Lawyers in Bunch Case for Entertaining Prospective Jurors

BURT EVANS IS CENSURED

(By United Press.)

Muncie, Ind., July 7.—"Entertainment" of jurors by attorneys engaged in the trial on Mayor Rollin H. Bunch for conspiracy to solicit and accept bribes is not to the liking of Judge Alonzo Blair, of Shelbyville. He rebuked an attorney for the "friendly actions" toward prospective jurors today.

The rebuke came on inferences by the defense that Attorney Burt Evans of Newcastle, acting for the defense, had asked W. Addison, a druggist of Cadiz, Ind., and a prospective jurymen, to ride to Newcastle Thursday evening in the Evans automobile.

Long before SENRECO was offered to you we submitted it to hundreds of dentists, requesting that they put it to every test. Told them that we believed Senreco to be an unusually good dentifrice, especially as to its cleansing qualities and its remedial action on sore, soft, bleeding gums; in the treatment of Pyorrhea, etc. Submitted the formula and asked them their opinion. They tested Senreco from every angle; some going even so far as to make a chemical analysis—

And They Voted Yes

With practically one accord—said:

"Senreco appeals to me more than any dentifrice I have ever seen." "I cannot say too much for Senreco. It's one of the best I have used." "I can recommend Senreco as the best." "Makes the teeth glister and is free from injurious ingredients, including pumice and grit." "I am indeed glad to get a tooth paste that does the work." "Congratulations you on formulating a dentifrice that gives one a new idea of mouth cleanliness, etc." (These quotations are from the dentists' reports. Originals on file at our office.)

With such endorsements from the men who know; why not go to your dealer today and get a tube of SENRECO—25c. Keep your teeth REALLY CLEAN, and protect yourself against Pyorrhea and decay.

21 MILLION MEN OF MILITARY AGE

This is Estimate of Census Bureau
Placed on Number of Able Bodied Citizens.

BETWEEN AGES OF 18 AND 45

Estimate Based on Assumption
There Has Been Increase of
10 Per Cent Since 1910.

Washington, June 7.—How many able-bodied citizens of military age have we in the United States?

The Bureau of the Census, while it is unable to make any estimate of the proportion who are able-bodied, estimate that the total number of male citizens and prospective citizens—that is, foreign-born persons who have declared their intention to become citizens—18 to 45 years of age, inclusive, is not far from 21,000,000.

This estimate is based on the assumption that there has been an increase of approximately 10 per cent in the population of the country since the census of 1910. When that census was taken, the total number of male citizens and prospective citizens 18 years of age and over, but under 46, was 19,183,000. Of this number, 14,224,000 were native whites, 2,857,000 were foreign-born whites who had become naturalized or had declared their intention of doing so, 2,052,000 were Negroes and 50,000 were Indians. The number of foreign-born citizens is partially an estimate, since the census enumerators were able to obtain information as to citizenship from only about seven-eighths of the total number of foreign-born males. Native whites thus represent about 74 per cent of the total, foreign-born whites nearly 15 per cent, Negroes nearly 11 per cent, and Indians about three-tenths of 1 per cent.

During the Civil War, when the population of the country, exclusive of the seceding states, was less than one-fourth as great as the present population of the entire United States, the total number of men serving in the Federal armies at one time and another was approximately 2,500,000 (due allowance being made for duplicate enlistments, that is, cases in which men enlisted more than once.)

The following table gives, by states, the total number of males 18 to 45 years of age enumerated at the census of 1910. The figures in this table include approximately 1,796,000 alien whites and 92,000 Chinese, Japanese, and others, together representing about 9 per cent of the total, who would be ineligible for military service. The Census Bureau has not compiled the numbers of these classes of the population, within the given age limits, who were living in each state in 1910. Taking the country as a whole, however, the probable increase in population between 1910 and 1916, will approximately counterbalance the number of alien whites, Chinese, Japanese, etc., included in the figures for 1910, so that these figures may be accepted as roughly representative of the number of male citizens and prospective citizens 18 to 45 years of age, inclusive, in the United States in 1916.

Drive It Into the Barn

AS we told you, a Low Cloverleaf gives the manure a double beating. It also spreads manure eight feet wide or better. But the wonderful thing is that it does this from a box only 45 inches wide. The spreader itself is so narrow that it can be driven into any modern barn and loaded from the gutters. Only one handling of the manure for the quickest, best job of spreading you ever did. How does that sound to you?

If you have even begun to think about buying a spreader, see this Low Cloverleaf. You will say you never saw a better manure spreader. It won't take long to look it over. Your dealer has one set up for you to see.

GARY SYSTEM IS DISCUSSED

William E. Wirt, Superintendent and Originator of Plan Addresses Educators Today.

GOMPERS ALSO ON PROGRAM

Wants School to Teach Respect For Working Men — American School Peace League Meets.

(By United Press.)

New York, July 7.—The Gary plan of school administration, the obligation of educational systems to union labor and peace had their innings in the discussions of the National Education Association meeting here today.

William A. Wirt, superintendent of the city schools of Gary, Ind., discussed the Gary plan as organized in his home city and as administered in twelve of the leading public schools in the Bronx, New York City. The Gary plan, he declared, has extended in some form or other to most of the leading city school systems in the country.

Samuel Gompers, president of the American federation of labor, advocated training in the schools for efficient work and the teaching in the schools of the doctrine of respect for the rights of the man who carries a dinnerpail. Dr. John Dewey, professor of education, Columbia University, addressed the association of "Nationalizing Education." Simeon D. Fess, member of Congress from Ohio, advocated the establishment of a national university at Washington.

One of the really belligerent meetings is the meeting of the American school peace league, Fanny Fern Andrews, secretary of the league, insists that public school training must finally make for peace at any price. Delegates to the peace league and prominent educators who are guests at the annual banquet in Hotel Astor differ as to the educational program to best lead to the establishment of peace with honor.

"The formation of an effective world peace court, so nearly accomplished at the second Hague Conference, declared Miss Fern Andrews "should be emphasized as an ideal for which the world has hoped and waited."

"GRANDMA" DUNN ESCAPES WRECK

Well Known Vincennes Woman Tells of Big Benefits Brought By Tanlac

Vincennes, Ind., July 6.—Mrs. Elmora Dunn, a well known resident of Vincennes, better known to the people of this city as "Grandma," has found relief from troubles through use of Tanlac, the Master Medicine. She said:

"I had stomach trouble and it led to a general nervous breakdown. Gas formed on my stomach. I couldn't sleep at night. I was almost a nervous wreck.

"It seems that all my trouble has vanished before Tanlac. I eat heartily now and I am not bothered by gas formations. My stomach is in much better shape; my nerves are in good condition once more; I sleep fine. Tanlac is the best medicine I ever took in my life."

Tanlac, the Master Medicine, is especially beneficial for stomach, liver and kidney trouble, catarrhal complaints, rheumatism, nervousness, sleeplessness, loss of appetite and the like, and is a general tonic for weak, run-down people. Tanlac is now sold exclusively in Rushville at F. E. Wolcott's drug store; in Arlington at Mrs. L. T. Davis's; in Carthage at J. H. McCarthy & Son's, and in Milroy at Barton and Sheppard's."—(Adv.)

Order is Issued by Secretary Baker Authorizing Discharge of Guardsmen With Dependents

MANY FAMILIES DESTITUTE

The order of Secretary of War Baker authorizing department commanders to discharge enlisted men of the national guard in federal service who have one or more dependant relatives will not affect any of the five Rushville boys who left Indianapolis last night for the border with Battery B, of the Indiana field artillery battalion.

A dispatch from Washington says orders to department commanders made public today, give them full power to consider applications and direct that discharges be granted where the circumstances warrant. They also provide that recruiting and mustering officers shall be instructed not to accept recruits with families dependent upon them for support.

Secretary Baker and his advisers at the War Department decided that this step was imperative to meet appeals which have been flooding the department on behalf of thousands of guardsmen whose families have been left destitute by the President's call upon the state forces for service on the Mexican border.

There has been no tabulation of petitions, but some officials estimated today that fully one-third of all the men in the National Guard might be affected by the order, which applies to troops now on the border as well as those waiting to move. In almost every organization mustered in, it is understood, a considerable number of the members has been in distress over the prospect of having to support a family indefinitely on the pittance received from the army.

ESCAPES TRIAL ON TECHNICALITY

Elmer Littrell is Discharged When it
Is Found Affidavit Against
Him is Faulty

ACCUSED OF SELLING BOOZE

Develops That he Bought Whiskey at Court House Drug Store With Money Pea Gave Him

Elmer Littrell escaped trial this morning on a charge of selling intoxicating liquor because of a faulty affidavit. The case was dismissed although Mayor Bebout took the position that some offense had been committed.

Littrell was specifically charged with selling a quart of whiskey to Lige Pea. Littrell bought the whiskey at the Court House drug store and in turn gave it to Pea. Under the law this does not constitute a sale on the part of Littrell, although he evidently made false affidavit in securing the liquor for Pea.

Mayor Bebout made an honest effort to land Littrell. Lige Pea has given the police much trouble and last Saturday night the climax was reached when he was reported to the police. Pea was brought before the mayor and told that he had been getting his whiskey through Elmer Littrell and his father, J. Littrell.

Mayor Bebout decided to see if Lige was telling the truth and gave him a dollar with which to buy a quart of whiskey. The entire thing was pre-arranged and just as Littrell was about to hand the bottle over to Pea he was arrested. Monday when arraigned an affidavit charging him with a specific sale was filed and the trial was set for this morning. In the meantime it was found that the affidavit was wrong and that there was no case against Littrell for this offense.

Under the law a man can buy a quart of whiskey at a drug store if he makes affidavit as to its intended use. Mayor Bebout took the position that Littrell made a false affidavit at the Court House drug store when he bought it for Pea.

"I have had numerous complaints against you and your father," said Mayor Bebout in addressing Littrell, "and it has come to a point where it must stop. It was my money that bought that quart of whiskey because I am trying my best to keep this city 'dry.' I am telling you this with the hope that you will quit it. It seems like a funny law that will permit a man to buy whiskey at a drug store by simply making affidavit and then permitting the buyer to do what he pleases with it. I have had numerous complaints against you and your father and I hope this will prove a lesson."

TODAY CONCEDED HOTTEST

More Complaints Because of Heat
Than Any Time This Summer

Today was generally conceded to have been the warmest day of the summer thus far. This afternoon at two o'clock the temperature was 88 degrees in the shade, while directly across the street with the sun beating down on the pavement the mercury reached the 100 mark. These figures apply to the business district where the heat was intense all day. There may have been warmer days this summer but more complaints were heard because of the heat today than any other day and many were of the opinion that this was the warmest of the season.

PAVING IN FIRST TO START SOON

When Contractor A. L. Tribble
Blames Commissioners for Delay
They Order Brick at Once

SHIPMENTS STARTED TODAY

The work of paving First street is expected to start soon as a result of a conference yesterday between the commissioners and the contractor, A. L. Tribble, of Terre Haute. Tribble was told that the county expected the street to be finished under the specified time. Tribble in turn blamed the commissioners for the delay because he could not start work until the brick was ordered.

The commissioners were led to believe by Tribble that strikes at the various brick plants would make it impossible to secure the brick. The commissioners decided to call his bluff and picked out the Medora brick for the job. The Medora brick is made at Medora, Ind., and communication with the plant revealed the information that they could begin shipping today and that brick should begin arriving here within three or four days. Tribble was then told to get busy.

WANTS DIVORCE AFTER 27 YEARS

Mrs. Jennie M. Ryon Files Suit Today, Alleging She Was Subjected to Abuses

JAMES M. RYON IS DEFENDANT

After living together twenty-seven years, Mrs. Jennie A. Ryon has decided she can endure it no longer and has filed suit for divorce from James M. Ryon. They are residents of Richland township. According to the complaint which was filed today by Samuel L. Trabue, they were married in Franklin county March 21, 1889 and separated June 14, 1916.

She charges him with cruel and inhuman treatment, alleging that he frequently cursed her in the presence of their only child and that she was subjected to other abuses. Mrs. Ryon maintains that they are the holders in common to the title of 85 acres of land and she asks for her undivided one-half. She also asks the custody of their child, and $5 a week support money pending the outcome of the case. A temporary restraining order was issued preventing him from disposing of any of the property.

ARE OPPOSED TO HORSE SHOW

Many Who Have Backed Fall Event
Financially in Past Say They Will Not This Year

FAVOR SOMETHING, HOWEVER

Believe Money Spent in Premiums
Could be Used to Better Advantage for Entertainment

The opinion has been expressed by several business men that the annual horse show in Rushville has run its course and that it will be replaced by something else this fall. Many of those who have backed the show financially have said that they would not support it this fall.

Those who are opposed to another horse show, however, are in favor of some sort of a fall event, and it has been suggested that this year it would be suitable to augment the observance of the centennial at the chautauqua with a celebration of some sort about the same time the horse show is usually held.

The suggestion has been made that a three-day event might be held this fall in the form of a fall festival, home coming and centennial celebration. By doing away with the industrial parade which has been a feature of the horse show for two years past, the idea is advanced that an immense pageant or parade might be held, with the centennial the main idea expressed in it.

Several men have been talking about such a celebration and have met with considerable response from those who have been paying the bills for the horse show every year but are unalterably opposed this year to a horse show. They declare that the horse show does not arouse the enthusiasm that it once did and that not near so many persons are animated by the desire to see sleek-haired animals as there were when the horse show was instituted here many years ago.

The gradual encroachment of paved streets has driven the light harness horse farther and farther from the city until, for the last two or three years, the showings in that class have had to be held at the edge of the business district. It would be impossible for the light harness horses to be shown in West First street this year because that street will be torn up for paving. Just where the events could take place is not known.

It is advocated by those who have been putting up the cash every year for the horse show that the same sum of money which is used for premiums and other expenses of the show could be used to much better advantage in entertaining the people.

FRATS IN POLITICS

New York, July 7.—Greek letter fraternities, say college boys, are playing strong in college politics. Perhaps they have jimmied their way into the national game.

Charles Evans Hughes, the G. O. P. presidential candidate belongs to the Delta Upsilon crowd.

Frank Hitchcock, the man who "did it," also wears the Delta U. emblem.

Major Crosssett, major domo at Hughes headquarters, is a national officer of the Greek letter organization which Hughes is a member of.

It may be that the whole thing was plotted at some mystic hour in the chapter "tomb."

HELEN WARRUM WILL SING HERE

Noted Hoosier Soloist Will Appear
Twice on Centennial Day at Chautauqua

With Her, Riley, Governor Ralston
and Historical Picture, Day
Will be Fitting One

The program committee of the Rush county chautauqua, which will be held August 6 to 13, at the coliseum in the city park, announced today that the program had been completed with the consent of Helen Warrum, formerly of Indianapolis, to sing on Centennial day—Thursday, August 10.

It is felt that an exceptionally fine program has been obtained for the special celebration of the state's hundredth birthday with the seven-reel picture depicting Indiana's history, a visit from James Whitcomb Riley music by a former Hoosier girl who has attained success in grand opera, and a possible visit from Governor Ralston.

Indiana day at the chautauqua this year will undoubtedly be a feature of this year's chautauqua for a number of reasons, but especially because the committee has the promise of the Hoosier poet to pay Rushville a visit. Of course, Riley's coming can not be absolutely assured, but his health is all right and the weather is not too disagreeable, he will most surely be present in Rushville on Indiana day.

Not only because it will be Indiana day, will the visit of Riley be appropriate, but much more so will it be because Riley is pictured in the photoplay, "Indiana," which is to be shown that day, as telling the story which the picture tells to a group of little children, his best friends. Frequently during the picture Riley and his little friends are depicted to keep up the thread of the story.

The program committee was elated when it received word this morning that Helen Warrum could be here on Thursday, August 10. She will give preludes of forty-five minutes for both the afternoon and evening programs. Miss Warrum is a talented soloist with whom Hoosier musicians and lovers of music are very familiar. She has appeared in Indianapolis often since she became noted as a grand opera singer. Miss Warrum does special costume numbers and thus offers a program of great variety.

The program committee has a tentative promise from Governor Ralston to visit the chautauqua Indiana day, which would round out the special program and make it all that could be desired. When Governor Ralston was invited, he could give no assurance that the duties of his office would be such as to allow his attendance here. The committee, however, has high hopes that the governor as well as James Whitcomb Riley will be able to attend.

When plans formulated for centennial memorials are carried out, it is believed that the celebration here will be very fitting. Committees have been appointed to arrange for the erection of a memorial gate at the entrance of the city park and a log cabin representative of those of pioneer days in Indiana.

Employees Mrs. W. L. Berryman for Coming Exhibit

HAS NATIONAL REPUTATION

Mrs. W. L. Berryman, who is a judge of national reputation, has been engaged by the Rush County Fair association to judge culinary, needlecraft and art at the approaching exhibition. Because of the large amount and fine variety of the showing in the fine arts department last year, it was expected that the display would be even greater this year and the fair officials are especially anxious to get a judge of this character to decide who shall have the premiums.

Mrs. Berryman represented Indiana in the women's department at the St. Louis exposition and was the judge of needlecraft at the Panama-Pacific exposition. Mrs. Berryman has judged at the Indiana state fair for many years and for the state fairs of numerous other states. "A person receiving an award at her hands has something to be prized," said Secretary Thomas of the fair association today.

THIRD INFANTRY TO BE ON WAY SOON

DESTINATION THOUGHT SAME

(By United Press.)

Fort Benjamin Harrison, Indianapolis, Ind., July 7.—With the artillery battalion of the Indiana National Guard on its way to "somewhere on the Mexican border" three more troop trains were being made up at Camp Ralston today and by night the Third Infantry regiment was expected to be on its way.

It was believed at camp today that the destination of the Third Infantry is the same as that of the battalion, Brownsville, Texas. The regiment consists of 54 officers and 1,071 men.

Entrainment of the Third Infantry did not proceed with the dispatch shown yesterday in the entrainment of the battalion and guard officers said this afternoon the troops would not be ready to leave before tonight.

It was stated unofficially this afternoon that entrainment of the Second Infantry, scheduled for Monday, might be delayed, awaiting the mustering of the Kokomo and Princeton companies. Red tape in Washington is holding up the mustering in of the companies.

(By United Press.)

Washington, July 7.—Declaring "the government of the United States is prepared immediately to exchange views as to a practical plan to remove finally and prevent a recurrence of the difficulties which has been the cause of controversy," Secretary of State Lansing dispatched to Mexican Ambassador Arredondo a reply to General Carranza's note of July 4.

The American government comments favorably in the note on the "frank statement of the difficulties which have arisen," and expresses gratification over the "unreserved expression of the desire of your government to reach an adjustment." Arredondo will immediately telegraph the note to the Mexican foreign office and it is expected that he will be at once instructed to begin the desired negotiations with the state department.

Acting Secretary of State Polk will conduct the negotiations for the department in the absence of Secretary Lansing, who leaves on his vacation this afternoon.

FEAR ATTACK FROM BIG CARRANZA FORCE

(By United Press.)

Eagle Pass, Texas, July 7.—Scores of American residents in Piedras Negras opposite here, left the Mexican city today, fearing attack by the large force of Carranzistas which has been concentrated there. The Mexican troops are unruly and with them are large forces of Yaqui Indians, encamped on the outskirts of the city. Today Generals Murquia and Cos arrived with a force of 500 to 2,000 soldiers. More Carranza troops are said to be enroute here.

VILLA LOOMS AGAIN ON THE MEXICAN HORIZON

(By United Press.)

El Paso, Texas, July 7.—Villa again looms up in the Mexican situation, threatening Carranza's rule in northern Mexico. Unconfirmed reports to United States officials here declared the bandit leader himself is at the head of over 2,000 men, in possession of Jimenez and menacing Torreon, and other cities now held by small Carranza garrisons.

PERSHING MAY ADVANCE TO MEET THE VILLISTAS

(By United Press.)

Washington, July 7.—General Pershing's punitive column will not only remain within Mexico "for the time being," but it may even be sent farther south to take a whack at the Villa band reported to have annihilated practically a Carranza garrison near Jimenez. This was learned on high authority today following a formal notification of the Villista success.

MAKING SURVEY OF CLAY COUNTY

Department of Geology of Indiana University. Finding Out Natural Resources.

SCHOOL MAINTAINS CAMP

(By United Press.)

Brazil, July 7.—What are the natural resources of Clay county. By the end of the summer this question will be answered by the body of geologists now working over the country. The work is being done under the direction of the Department of geology of Indiana University. The class is headed by Prof. J. W. Beede, associate professor in geology at the state university.

The field training camp is now near Bowling Green. The work is confined to what is known to the federal department of geology as the Clay City triangle, the northern limits of which almost reach this city.

The school maintains a camp of its own for the reason that the members have more privacy and better facilities for studying. Each member of the school goes out during the day and makes his investigation and in the evening they compare their notes and discuss the formations they have noted.

STARS GO TO PHILADELPHIA

(By United Press.)

Chicago, July 7.—The 1917 Western Amateur golf championship probably will go to the far west. Golfers of the middle western states, including the present title holder Chick Evans, cannot make the trip to the Del Monte, Cal., course the championship play will take place, because of the great distance and the amount of time needed.

Evans announced some time previous to the qualifying rounds, scheduled for July 17, that he could not defend his title because of the action of the association in choosing the far western golf course as the battle ground.

Only two men of championship calibre in the Chicago district, which has produced champions for the last seventeen years, are among the scheduled contestants. They are Ned Sawyer, Wheaton and E. Hoover Rankard, Midlothian.

As a result of the disadvantages in the Western Golf association championship contest, most of the Chicago stars will journey to Philadelphia in August to play for the national amateur championship.

Be Careful in Using Soap on Your Hair

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is just plain mul-sified coconut oil, for it is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap, and beats the most expensive soaps or anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy, and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.

who thinks it clever to flirt is shown in the three act Imp drama "Scorched Wings," which will be shown at the Gem tonight. Betty Grey and Paul Panzer are featured. Tomor-tured and is supported by such stars as Flora Finch, Hughie Mack and Kate Price. Miss Robson is cast as a grandmother who has been held in restraint all her life and whose girlish impulses are still checked by an austere daughter. Her grandsons find in her a real companion and champion of their boyish pranks. The three sneak out to a cafe, where "Grannum" learns to tango and has a thoroughly good time until the police raid the place.

Then the fun really starts as many complications arise which make the picture very funny. Tomorrow,

Harvey, Pragmaticator.

Col. George Harvey, once staunch friend of President Wilson, who did more than any one person to accomplish the nomination and election of Wilson teaches a lesson in preparedness by recalling a prophecy that he made when United States soldiers were ordered into Mexico. He wrote in the New York Sun as follows to show that what he prophesied came true, the first one having been written under date of March 17:

"Has Washington gone crazy? Can it be possible, as reported here, that the president has sent a paltry force of only 5,000 ill equipped and unsupported soldiers on a wild, bandit chase into a hornet's nest of gringo haters, ten times their number and ten times as well equipped with machine guns and ammunition, without safeguarding a line of communication in case of need of retreat? Not so long ago we were bidden to trust the amiable Villa, who at Juarez sat at the feet of our chief of staff, acting as personal representative of the commander-in-chief, and obediently studied the usages of civilized warfare, only later at Columbus to return with marked effect a few of the

Mr. Priest Tells His Experience

The following brief account of an interview with a Rushville man over five years ago, and its sequel, will be read with keen interest by every citizen.

Geo. Priest, 223 W. 3rd St., Rushville, says: "I have been afflicted more or less with kidney trouble for several years. It came on me gradually and each day, I could notice that it was becoming worse. It started with a dull pain directly over my kidneys, dizzy spells followed and there seemed to be specks before my eyes. Doan's Kidney Pills were highly recommended for such ailments and I got a box at Johnson's Drug Store. They proved to be the best medicine of the kind I had ever used. In a short time they freed me from that distressing pain in my back and restored my kidneys to a normal condition.

The above statement was given on March 9, 1910, and on Aug. 26, 1915, Mr. Priest said: "Whenever my kidneys bother me, I use Doan's Kidney Pills and they always give good results. My former endorsement still holds good."

Price 50c at all dealer. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Priest has twice publicly recommended. Foster Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.—(Adv.)

millions of bullets which we had supplied to them, as our ally in the president's war on Huerta. Now we are told to place faith in the no less gentle Carranza, who has held nominal authority by flouting, deriding and defying our government. At every turn, and who can not reverse his policy without inviting deposition or assassination. We do not have to heed this executive adjuration any more than we have to be neutral in our thoughts; but our soldiers do. Carranza and his army may spare their lives or they may be cut off and surrounded. They soon will be at the mercy perhaps of the relentless first chief, but none the less subject to the passions of his horde of hostile and savage men. This mad adventure is nothing less than a bid for the massacre of American soldiers. Can nothing be done to stop it?"

Colonel Harvey points to his letter of March 17 as a prophecy and now comments on it in the same newspaper the New York Sun, as follows:

"Apparently nothing could be done; in any case nothing was done; hence the ambush and massacre of American soldiers at Carrizal. But that may not be all; indeed, there is a strong probability that it is only the beginning. General Pershing's purpose in sending out a troop is evident. It was not a foolhardy act; it was necessary. He was obliged to find out whether his line of communication was intact; whether his command was being cut off and surrounded. And having no scouting aeroplanes there was but one thing to do, namely, to acquire requisite information, conformably to military tenets, for the safeguarding of an entire command, even though a troop be sacrificed in the process.

"And now what? The actual situation is unchanged. Our soldiers are still confronted or surrounded by ten times their number and ten times as well supplied with machine guns and ammunition, and the demonstrated unpreparedness of both the war department and national guard indicates conclusively that no adequate support can be furnished for weeks to come. The gringo haters are elated by the success of their treacherous assault, fully equipped and supremely confident.

"The Pershing command is in imminent peril. There is but one thing to do in simple justice to our soldiers and regardless of their wishes.

"Hasten the mobilization of the militia on the border by all means, but above all, immediately, without wasting a day, an hour or a minute, before it may prove too late:

"Withdraw our troops from Mexico!"

It begins to look like the punitive expedition into Mexico would be another Vera Cruz, as was predicted it might be when United Soldiers were ordered across the border to get Villa dead or alive.

Several days ago orders were issued by the Mexican commander of the north for General Pershing's command not to move anyway except north, which was towards the border. Since that time United States troops have moved only north. No doubt this has caused as much secret elation to Carranza and his followers as did the refusal of Huerta to salute the flag, when he was ordered to do so at Washington, cause joy among those of the men heigning power in Mexico.

Although, Washington information indicates, withdrawal is not in the immediate future, it is likely because of the pacificatory note which Carranza sent to the president—with drawn without the accomplishment of the avowed purpose for which United States soldiers were sent into Mexico.

Current Comments

Our German Citizens.

(Shelbyville Republican)

By directness and by insinuation the Democratic platform adopted at the St. Louis convention is an insult to every German citizen of this country. The average citizen of this country has been taught that the constitution grants to him freedom of speech, freedom of thought, freedom of religious worship and a freedom to vote as he pleases; that coercion is a crime.

Because of the spineless attitude assumed by the government in our foreign relations, President Wilson has lost the support of thousands of Germans in this country. The facts are that because of the blockade of German ports by the English navy and its supporters the German government has been hampered in securing supplies from this country while the allies have in a large measure, been maintained by the various supplies purchased here. The Germans say that the English government, in particular, has been much favored by the Wilson administration; that if the same restrictions had been carried into execution against the allies that the Germans have been compelled to recognize the war would have been over.

The Germans of this country are naturally in sympathy with Germany the same as the English are in sympathy with England and the Turks in sympathy with Turkey. A German of this country, who is a G. A. R. member recently said to The Republican in this war; that he hoped that Germany would win and added that his wish has nothing to do with his citizenship. An Englishman living in this city is in full accord with England hoping that the allies will be victorious in the conflict raging. He has in the English army seven nephews. As a matter of fact his sympathies are with England. This condition has nothing to do with his Americanism. Both of the men mentioned are as good Americans as the flag floats over—both would die for the flag if necessity demanded.

President Wilson is in the position where he must bear the blame and the brunt of all the errors of his administration. If his course has offended the German citizens of this country he will have to face that problem.

Some cigarettes have to play that game—the way they're "built" they can't help hiding some of the taste!

But Favorites are different. They are made of STRAIGHT CUT tobacco. And "Straight Cut" "draws" so much more freely and evenly that it brings out ALL the taste, and aroma, and "body" that are partly shut up in some cigarettes.

Automobile Thief is One of the Cleverest Crooks

Sorts of Devices and Schemes
Are Used by This Class of
Robber to Get Away.

NO SURE PROTECTION FOUND

One of the cleverest crooks the twentieth century has developed is the automobile thief, according to police officers who have studied their methods in various large cities. The thief knows every make of car and there is scarcely any precaution taken by the owner of the car to guard his property that the thief can not beat. Some car owners fondly imagine that when they chain the wheel of their car with a fairly thick steel pin, they have made it impossible for any crook to move the auto from its anchorage. The simplicity of this method must cause hilarity among the motor car crooks, for the heavy steel chain can be cut in a second with the appliances that the thieves carry in their outfit. But most car owners consider they have made the car immovable by simply locking the switch box. It is interesting to know that the thieves have found a way to beat this practice very easily. The clever mechanic who makes a business of repairing cars can cross wires so as to cause ignition and move the engine without bothering with the switch box at all. A method that is kindergarten to the car thief is to connect wires from the dry cell battery direct to the ignition coil, thus starting the motor with difficulty. Some cars have arrangement by which gasoline supply can be locked, and this is regarded by some owners as placing a hopeless barrier in the way of the thief who would run off with the standing car. For how can a car be moved when the gasoline is shut off. Nothing easier. The motor car thief carries with him his own supply of gasoline in a bucket. With this gallon or so of gasoline, carried in a bucket, the automobile thief can negotiate a fifteen-mile run with the car by connecting his bucket of gasoline direct to the carburetor. Feeding the gasoline to the carburetor in this way through a rubber hose, the automobile thief can send the car far from the scene of its former station; sufficiently far to enable him to put the gasoline tank and the car in regular commission and speed where he will to safety, and a sale.

But the commonest and, therefore, the safest trick of the automobile thief requires no expert mechanical knowledge. It simply requires nerve, which these thieves possess to an unusual degree. This trick is the old one of driving up in an old auto that looks like a garage repair wagon, hitching a rope to the car that is to be stolen and towing it away. The thieves dress for the part in oil-soaked overalls. When they have selected the car to be stolen, picking one that is in a side street and not likely to be under the eye of policeman who may have been tipped to watch the car, the thieves come up to the scene in their old car, looking like the ordinary crew bent for from the garage to repair a car that is in trouble or isn't working as well as its fastidious owner would wish.

They alight from their own car and make a great pretense of examining the car that they intend to spirit away. They remove the hood and scrutinize the motor. They get out a kit of tools and tinker for awhile with some part of the machinery. If any one should happen to be watching them or looking on from a neighboring window all the men do has the appearance of natural work by honest workmen from the repair shop. Presently the men hold a consultation, pointing to some part of the motor machinery, and apparently come to the conclusion that the car can not be started with the tools at their command. Then they hitch a rope to the car and tow it away at the end of their own car. Could anything be more simple?

How can you beat such a game as this? Carrying away part of the machinery does not prevent the thieves from towing the car away. One sure way to prevent robbery is to have the car watched. The policeman on that patrol will keep an eye on it if you are going to make a visit to some office building and coming back in a short time. But if you keep your car in the street the entire day no one can watch it. You are simply taking a chance with the car thieves.

One simple safeguard is a chain on the wheel, and that has proven a flimsy protection for the auto thieves laugh at the ordinary chain, the long-handled nippers that they carry cutting through steel as easily as paper.

The smashing of the padlock is even a simpler way of releasing the wheel. The only comfort the owner of the car can carry away with him after locking the wheel of the car is that he has placed a difficulty in the way of the car thieves, for cutting a chain or breaking a padlock is an action that is likely to attract attention even in a street where every one is intent upon his own business and averse to going out of his way to prevent a possible theft. Besides which, the car thieves can cover the action of opening a padlock of cutting a chain by gathering around the wheel as though they own the car and are merely making an examination or removing the chain preparatory to starting the car.

There are other ways of making the path of the motor car crook as steep and difficult as possible. One motorist believes he has solved the thief problem by having a slot cut in the clutch pedal shaft. Through this he passes a bar which he locks. So far his car has not been stolen. Another way is to remove the rotor. This makes it very difficult for any thief to steal the car, for he would have to carry a number of rotors to be sure of having one that would fit that particular motor.

ARTILLERY IS OFF FOR BORDER

Nearly 500 Soldiers, Comprising
First Battalion, Leave Thursday Night at 7:30

THRILLED BY MARTIAL MUSIC

Many Affecting Scenes are Enacted
as First of Indiana Men Depart for Service

Indianapolis, Ind., July 7.—With a band playing, "The Girl I Left Behind Me," with inspiring cheers from their comrades who are to join them later, blended with the tears of mothers, sisters and sweethearts and with a "God Bless You," from Governor Ralston nearly 500 Indiana soldiers, comprising the First Field Artillery Battalion, departed from Camp Ralston, Fort Benjamin Harrison, at 7:30 p'clock last evening for the Mexican border.

The Third Infantry, Col. Aubrey L. Kuhlman commanding, will entertain today, departing soon after noon, and other units of the Indiana Guard are to follow from day to day until all of the 4,300 men and officers are on their way to the border. It is expected that the Indiana brigade as a whole, will go into camp near Brownsville, Tex., though no official information on the place of destination is forthcoming. It is expected that the last unit, the First Regiment, will have been entrained by next Monday.

The departure of the first Indiana troops was attended by many affecting scenes. Mothers clung to the necks of their boys and kissed them frantically. Sweethearts stood sadly arm in arm with the soldier boy whose bride they expect to be if he returns safely and fighting to keep back tears, said brave good-bys.

Fathers, with serious faces, patted their sons on the back and said farewell. The departing soldiers undoubtedly were deeply affected by the demonstration made, but they would rather have sacrificed their lives than allowed a tear to come. The soldiers, made serious by last-minute thoughts of leaving loved ones, boarded the trains quietly, while outside several hundred soldiers who are to join them in Texas later, cheered lustily.

While the trains stood for a few minutes after the men had gone aboard, several of the more daring girls climbed or were assisted to the open windows and kissed their soldier-lovers a last goodbye. Mothers, choked with emotion until they could scarcely speak, stood below the windows and held to the outstretched hand of their sons.

"Well, Jim, you are the man of the house now. Take good care of mother," said one soldier to his younger brother, who, with the sobbing mother, stood beside one of the Battery A. coaches.

"I would go myself if I were a man, but I don't want by boy—my only son—to go," cried one mother while the young soldier stood with his arm about her and attempted to console her.

She felt that her son was doing his duty to his country in answering a call to arms from the President; yet she was overcome with the thought of their separation and the possibility that he may never return.

"Be a good boy and obey your commanding officer," admonished a father who was one of the few parents to withhold his tears.

Several pretty girls in the crowd gathered about the cars in the Bell Railroad yards at Fort Harrison were seen to pass slips of paper, bearing their names and addresses, to soldiers with the suggestion and even the promise that they would receive souvenir postals or possibly a letter. The soldiers to receive these attentions were those who had no parents or friends to bid them a last farewell.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. With the new swimming pier built and a supervised bathing beach along Flatrock near the old gun club grounds, swimming parties are quite in vogue. Yesterday afternoon, between the hours of three and five about twenty-five young people had a gay time swimming.

FAMILY REUNION

Mrs. Daniel Kerr was hostess to a number of relatives at a family reunion, Tuesday. Her guests were Mrs. M. M. Coyne and children Ivan and Marcella of Rushville; Mrs. C. E. Buckley and daughter of Harrison, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. O. I. Harrison and daughter Ulla of Hagerstown; and Miss Marie Talbert of Morristown—Connersville Examiner.

EMANON CLUB

One of the most pleasant meetings of the season for the members of the Emanon Club was the one held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Bert Mullin in North Perkins street. The twelve members were present, enjoying a congenial afternoon together. Late in the afternoon, they were invited into the dining room where the prettily set table was decorated with nasturtiums and an elegant salad course was served. The next club meeting will be held with Mrs. Carl Behr.

GRAND CLUB

Mrs. J. C. Sexton was hostess to the members of the Grand Club at her home in North Main street yesterday afternoon. Aside from the twelve members there were a few guests, making four tables in play. After the interesting card games, a refreshing luncheon was served by the hostess. Among the players were Mrs. Sallie Houston of Shelbyville, who is the house-guest of Mrs. George Aultman, Mrs. Hunt, and Mrs. Hadley of Anderson, the house guests of Mrs. Theodore Reed.

CLASS PICNIC

The classes of the St. Paul's M. E. Sunday school picnicked yesterday afternoon in the Frames woods east of the city. They went shortly after noon and spent the hours preceding supper wading and playing various outdoor games. Near evening, a bonfire was built and the weenies roasted furnished a part of the bountiful picnic supper which was spread. The two classes are taught by Miss Louise Poe and Miss Helen Scudder, with Miss Gladys Bebout as assistant teacher for the latter. The picnicers included Jean Sparks, Letha Higgins, Magdalene Arbuckle, Helen Thomas, Lillian Priest, Roberta Muire, Mildred Mary, Lois Sefton, Fern Ornes, and Louise Lyons.

CAMPING PARTY

The girls camping at the Green cottage on the Flatrock are enjoying a delightful outing during their week's stay. Swimming, boating and the other sports which the season offers are being overworked by the girls in their care-free, outdoor life.

The duties, which are few, have been divided, giving each of the girls an opportunity to show their culinary art. Two are in charge of the meals for each day and rivalry has already been shown in their efforts to prepare the best menus with the allotted amount of finances. Tuesday, the girls had a pitch-in dinner; Wednesday, Miss Lois Reeves and Kathryn Guffin had charge; Thursday Miss Esther Anderson and Miss Kathryn Wooden were the chefs; and today's meals were prepared by Miss Dorothy Sparks and Miss Dorothy Mulno; and so on in rotation. Last evening Mr. and Mrs. Lucien B. Miller took the girls on a motor trip. Today, they entertained Mrs. Ferd Retherford, Mrs. Will Mulno, and Mrs. Link Guffin and daughter, Margaret, at dinner.

A social time with refreshments will follow the regular meeting of the Eastern Star to be held in the Masonic Temple this evening. The degree will be conferred and there will be regular work.

OPEN MEETING

About fifty invitations were issued for the open meeting of the C. W. B. M. of Orange to be held at the home of Mrs. J. F. Ryan there this afternoon. All the ladies of the church and the girls belonging to the Mission Circle were among the guests. An excellent program was given.

CHICKEN SUPPER

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Eakin entertained with a fried chicken supper at their home northeast of the city last evening. Nasturtiums decorated the center of the table about which the following guests were seated: Mr. and Mrs. Enos Hood and daughter, Edna, of Indianapolis, Mr. and Mrs. Cicero Newhouse, and Mrs. Corina Newhouse and daughters, Opal, Marie and Edith.

Mr. and Mrs. Hood spent last evening with Mr. and Mrs. Eakin and after being the guests today of Mr. and Mrs. Berry Rush at their home near Falmouth, will return to their home in Indianapolis tomorrow.

LITTLE FLATROCK C. W. B. M.

The patriotic colors and a profusion of flags were used in decorating the Little Flatrock church yesterday afternoon for the meeting of the C. W. B. M. held there. Aside from the forty-one members present, there were nine visitors, making an excellent attendance to appreciate the good program given. The program was under the leadership of Mrs. Herbert Holden and the numbers were:

Song—Mrs. Charles Fisher.

Scripture reading—John X, 1-18—Mrs. Mollie Coon.

Recitation—Miriam Holman.

Bible study—Home in Bethany—Mrs. Burl Matney.

Paper—Mrs. Walter Looney.

Piano duet—Mildred Wilson and Vera Mercer.

Reading—Mrs. Mont Stewart.

Talk on "Mexico, our work there and our relation as a Neighbor"—Mrs. J. A. Austin of the Ben Davis society.

Mrs. John Cassidy, superintendent of the Children's work was assisted by Mrs. Cliff Stevens, in giving a very interesting program in the Sunday School room. A business period and social hour followed.

During the latter, Miss Mildred Myers sang a solo, "Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean" and the ladies enjoyed a delicious luncheon. For this meeting, the hostesses were Mrs. O. J. Myers, Miss Margaret and Miss Eliza Holman, Mrs. El Jenks, Mrs. Claude Kenner, Mrs. Emma Wilkinson, and Mrs. Arthur Wilkinson.

Judge Blair Criticizes Lawyers in Bunch Case for Entertaining Prospective Jurors

BURT EVANS IS CENSURED

(By United Press.)
Muncie, Ind., July 7.—"Entertainment" of jurors by attorneys engaged in the trial on Mayor Rollin H. Bunch for conspiracy to solicit and accept bribes is not to the liking of Judge Alonzo Blair, of Shelbyville. He rebuked an attorney for the "friendly actions" toward prospective jurors today.

The rebuke came on inferences by the defense that Attorney Burt Evans of Newcastle, acting for the defense, had asked W. Addison, a druggist of Cadiz, Ind., and a prospective juror, to ride to Newcastle Thursday evening in the Evans automobile.

OF MILITARY AGE

This is Estimate of Census Bureau
Placed on Number of Able

Bodied Citizens.

BETWEEN AGES OF 18 AND 45

Estimate Based on Assumption
There Has Been Increase of
10 Per Cent Since 1910.

Washington, June 7.—How many able-bodied citizens of military age have we in the United States?

The Bureau of the Census, while it is unable to make any estimate of the proportion who are able-bodied, estimate that the total number of male citizens and prospective citizens—that is, foreign-born persons who have declared their intention to become citizens—18 to 45 years of age, inclusive, is not far from 21,000,000.

This estimate is based on the assumption that there has been an increase of approximately 10 per cent in the population of the country since the census of 1910. When that census was taken, the total number of male citizens and prospective citizens 18 years of age and over but under 46 was 19,187,000. Of this number, 14,224,000 were native whites, 2,857,000 were foreign-born whites who had become naturalized or had declared their intention of doing so, 2,052,000 were Negroes and 50,000 were Indians. The number of foreign-born citizens is partially an estimate, since the census enumerators were able to obtain information as to citizenship from only about seven-eighths of the total number of foreign-born males. Native whites thus represent about 74 per cent of the total, foreign-born whites nearly 15 per cent, Negroes nearly 11 per cent, and Indians about three-tenths of 1 per cent.

During the Civil War, when the population of the country, exclusive of the seceding states, was less than one-fourth as great as the present population of the entire United States, the total number of men serving in the Federal armies at one time and another was approximately 2,500,000 (due allowance being made for duplicate enlistments, that is, cases in which men enlisted more than once.)

The following table gives, by states, the total number of males 18 to 45 years of age enumerated at the census of 1910. The figures in this table include approximately 1,796,000 alien whites and 92,000 Chinese, Japanese, and others, together representing about 9 per cent of the total, who would be ineligible for military service. The Census Bureau has not compiled the numbers of these classes of the population, within the given age limits, who were living in each state in 1910. Taking the country as a whole, however, the probable increase in population between 1910 and 1916 will approximately counterbalance the number of alien whites, Chinese, Japanese, etc., included in the figures for 1910, so that these figures may be accepted as roughly representative of the number of male citizens and prospective citizens 18 to 45 years of age, inclusive, in the United States in 1916.

Drive It Into the Barn

AS we told you, a Low Cloverleaf gives the manure a double beating. It also spreads manure eight feet wide or better. But the wonderful thing is that it does this from a box only 45 inches wide. The spreader itself is so narrow that it can be driven into any modern barn and loaded from the gutters. Only one handling of the manure for the quickest, best job of spreading you ever did. How does that sound to you?

If you have even begun to think about buying a spreader, see this Low Cloverleaf. You will say you never saw a better manure spreader. It won't take long to look it over. Your dealer has one set up for you to see.

GARY SYSTEM IS DISCUSSED

William E. Wirt, Superintendent and Originator of Plan Addresses Educators Today.

GOMPERS ALSO ON PROGRAM

Wants School to Teach Respect For Working Men — American School Peace League Meets.

(By United Press.)

New York, July 7.—The Gary plan of school administration, the obligation of educational systems to union labor and peace had their innings in the discussions of the National Education Association meeting here today.

William A. Wirt, superintendent of the city schools of Gary, Ind., discussed the Gary plan as organized in his home city and as administered in twelve of the leading public schools in the Bronx, New York City. The Gary plan, he declared, has extended in some form or other to most of the leading city school systems in the country.

Samuel Gompers, president of the American federation of labor, advocated training in the schools for efficient work and the teaching in the schools of the doctrine of respect for the rights of the man who carries a dinnerpail. Dr. John Dewey, professor of education, Columbia University, addressed the association of "Nationalizing Education." Simeon D. Fess, member of Congress from Ohio, advocated the establishment of a national university at Washington.

One of the really belligerent meetings is the meeting of the American school peace league, Fanny Fern Andrews, secretary of the league, insists that public school training must finally make for peace at any price. Delegates to the peace league and prominent educators who are guests at the annual banquet in Hotel Astor differ as to the educational program to best lead to the establishment of peace with honor.

"GRANDMA" DUNN ESCAPES WRECK

Well Known Vincennes Woman Tells of Big Benefits Brought By Tanlac

Vincennes, Ind., July 6.—Mrs. Elmora Dunn, a well known resident of Vincennes, better known to the people of this city as "Grandma," has found relief from troubles through use of Tanlac, the Master Medicine. She said:

"I had stomach trouble and it led to a general nervous breakdown. Gas formed on my stomach. I couldn't sleep at night. I was almost a nervous wreck.

"It seems that all my trouble has vanished before Tanlac. I eat heartily now and I am not bothered by gas formations. My stomach is in much better shape; my nerves are in good condition once more; I sleep fine. Tanlac is the best medicine I ever took in my life."

Tanlac, the Master Medicine, is especially beneficial for stomach, liver and kidney trouble, catarrhal complaints, rheumatism, nervousness, sleeplessness, loss of appetite and the like, and is a general tonic for weak, run-down people. Tanlac is now sold exclusively in Rushville at F. E. Wolcott's drug store; in Arlington at Mrs. L. T. Davis; in Carthage at J. H. McCarthy & Son's, and in Milroy at Barton and Sheppard's. (Adg.)

WILL NOT EFFECT BOYS FROM HERE

Order is Issued by Secretary Baker Authorizing Discharge of Guardsmen With Dependents

MANY FAMILIES DESTITUTE

The order of Secretary of War Baker authorizing department commanders to discharge enlisted men of the national guard in federal service who have one or more dependent relatives will not affect any of the five Rushville boys who left Indianapolis last night for the border with Battery B of the Indiana field artillery battalion.

A dispatch from Washington says orders to department commanders made public today, give them full power to consider applications and direct that discharges be granted where the circumstances warrant. They also provide that recruiting and mustering officers shall be instructed not to accept recruits with families dependent upon them for support.

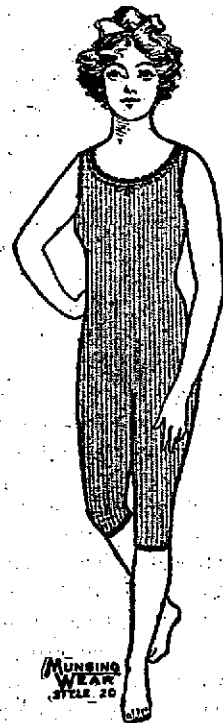

Secretary Baker and his advisers at the War Department decided that this step was imperative to meet appeals which have been flooding the department on behalf of thousands of guardsmen whose families have been left destitute by the President's call upon the state forces for service on the Mexican border.

There has been no tabulation of petitions, but some officials estimated today that fully one-third of all the men in the National Guard might be affected by the order, which applies to troops now on the border as well as those waiting to move. In almost every organization mustered in, it is understood, a considerable number of the members has been in distress over the prospect of having to support a family indefinitely on the pittance received from the army.
